

100 Things To Do With A Puppy in 100 Days

1. Open the door to a guest
2. Visit a friend or family member
3. Meet neighbors
4. Meet elderly people
5. Meet other family members at home
6. Meet people of different genders and races
7. Meet children
8. Meet teenagers and toddlers
9. Meet people carrying packages, deliveries
10. See mail carrier
11. See people on bicycles
12. See people on skateboards/wheels
13. See people in hats or helmets
14. See people wearing glasses or sunglasses
15. Meet the veterinarian
16. Meet the dog groomer (outside)
17. Meet members of the veterinary team
18. See trash collectors outside with garbage truck
19. See people in costumes
20. Meet men and women of different shapes and sizes
21. See outdoor critters
22. Meet other cats/dogs/puppies as allowed
23. Hear dogs barking
24. Hear cats meowing
25. Hear birds chirping
26. Hear airplanes
27. Hear trucks/motorcycles
28. Get exposed to a thunderstorm
29. Listen to fireworks
30. Hear sirens
31. Hear a car starting up (while in the vehicle)
32. Hear a car horn
33. Hear the radio/music playing
34. Listen to people clapping
35. Hear people shouting
36. Hear car doors opening and closing
37. The sounds of utensils and other items dropping
38. Listen to microwave beeping
39. Hear and see bathwater running
40. Hear smoke alarm beeping
41. Listen to doorbell ringing
42. Listen to knocking on a door
43. Hear pots and pans clanging/being used
44. Vacuum cleaner sound
45. Your hairdryer sound
46. Umbrella opening and closing
47. Visit a car wash
48. Watch airplanes in the sky
49. People and dog watch at a local park (from the car)
50. Visit a playground (from the car)
51. Watch a construction site in action
52. Visit a bus station (stay in your car)
53. Drive over a bridge
54. Sit near a shopping mall
55. See a fire (fireplace, campsite)
56. Watch car windows open and close
57. Visit a pet supply store
58. Make puppy playdates
59. Attend puppy training and socialization class
60. Teach them to allow your hands in/on their food
61. Take various toys away without them snapping
62. Run your fingers along gum line with gauze
63. Hold head still
64. Touch legs, stomach, tush, belly, chest, back
65. Feel bathwater on their skin and fur
66. Touch their ears and get them used to it
67. Trim their nails or have a vet or groomer do it
68. Your hand in puppy's mouth to examine gums
69. Exposure to a hairdryer on his coat
70. Head to tail exam for lumps and bumps
71. Exposure to different textures of puppy toys
72. Stairs
73. Elevator
74. Being okay around fans, heaters, air conditioner
75. Exposure to washer and dryer
76. Dry off with towel after bath
77. Sleeping in his kennel or crate
78. Sleeping on doggy bed
79. Exposure to mop and/or vacuum
80. Seeing his own reflection
81. Mealtime behavior and etiquette
82. Refrain from jumping on people
83. Submissive urination prevention
84. Playing with toys/fetch
85. Basic commands (sit, his name, etc.)
86. Where food and water bowls are located
87. Potty training
88. Appropriate things on which to chew
89. Socializing with other puppy friendly dogs
90. Sleeping arrangements
91. Wearing and putting on a collar
92. Wearing and putting on a harness
93. Wearing and putting on canine apparel
94. Wearing and putting on dog boots/paw protection
95. Hear the television playing
96. Touch their paws and in between toes
97. Brush their coat
98. Use a baby toothbrush on their teeth
99. Wipe and clean paws with towel (think mud)
100. Being picked up by strangers (with permission)